Coordinators must remind candidates that the IB will not issue results directly to candidates, a member of their family or any representative. As coordinator you must ensure that either yourself or a school representative is available during the period of results issue in order to deal with candidate and parents' queries. The IB will not speak to candidates, a member of their family or any representatives and will refer the person back to you, the coordinator.

For further information and a detailed explanation of 'P' grades and 'N' grades please refer to the "Results and certificates" section of the Assessment Procedures.
